Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct a Street Play in Observance of World Social Work Day

Respected Sir/Madam,

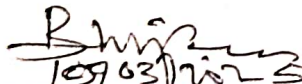

On behalf of the Department of Social Work, Holy Cross College Agartala, I am writing to seek your kind permission to conduct a street play in the market area of Kamalghat to observe World Social Work Day, scheduled for 24th March 2025 (Monday). This initiative will be organized by the Social Work students to raise awareness about strengthening intergenerational solidarity for enduring well-being.

The proposed street play will focus on the importance of strong family bonds across generations. It aims to highlight how respect, love, and care for both the elderly and younger generations contribute to family unity and overall well-being.

We plan to hold the performance between 11:00 AM to 11:40 AM. We kindly request your permission to organize this event and would be grateful for any guidance or instructions you may provide.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Warm Regards

Dr. Fr Benny K John CSC

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE ON WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY

Organized by Department of Social Work

Venue: Kamalghat Market

Time: 11:30AM to 12:00PM

Date: March 24, 2025

World Social Work Day 2025: Strengthening Intergenerational Solidarity for Enduring Wellbeing.

World Social Work Day was on March 18, 2025, under the theme "Strengthening Intergenerational Solidarity for Enduring Wellbeing." This theme emphasizes the importance of fostering care and respect across generations to build strong societies, sustain the environment, and share wisdom for a better future.

Joachim Mumba, President of the International Federation of Social Workers (IFSW), stated: "This theme highlights the critical role of intergenerational care, respect, and collaboration in creating resilient communities and sustainable environments. It underscores the social work profession's dedication to building connections that value the wisdom of our elders while empowering younger generations to tackle today's challenges and envision a better future. Together, we can build a world where compassion and solidarity lay the groundwork for lasting well-being for everyone. As an African proverb says, 'If you light a lamp for someone, it will also brighten your own path.' Our collective efforts to uplift one another ultimately illuminate the way forward for all."

On March 24, 2025, the Department of Social Work organized a street play at Kamalghat Market to observe World Social Work Day. The event aimed to spread awareness about "Intergenerational Solidarity" and promote the creation of a world for all ages. This theme highlights the need to bridge the generational gap and foster mutual understanding among people of all ages.

The event began with an opening speech, followed by a flash mob performed by 1st and 3rd semester students. As the crowd gathered, a street play was enacted by student social workers on the theme of intergenerational solidarity.

The performance illustrated how, amid the hustle and bustle of daily life, elderly individuals are often overlooked despite being rich in knowledge, history, and folklore. The play emphasized the importance of recognizing their wisdom and preserving their cultural contributions.

The primary goal of this street play was to raise awareness among the younger generation about the significance of intergenerational connections. The performance reinforced the importance of inclusive communities where every generation's contributions are valued and appreciated. Additionally, the event served as a call to action for policymakers to support initiatives that strengthen bonds between generations. Social workers also play a crucial role in facilitating intergenerational dialogue, advocating for the needs of all age groups, and creating programs that encourage collaboration between the young and the elderly.

By fostering intergenerational solidarity, we can build a more compassionate and connected society—one that respects the past, embraces the present, and empowers the future.
