Report on Visit to 43rd Book Fair at Hapania Ground of Amtali by the students of Department of Zoology, Holy Cross College, Agartala on 8th January 2025.

A visit to book fair promotes reading culture, encourages learning and knowledge and provides excellent platform for intellectual discussions. It plays a crucial role in spreading the love for books alive in the increasing digital world. Keeping this in view, the Department of Zoology, Holy Cross College, Agartala organized a visit to the book fair on 8th January 2025 at Hapania Ground at Amtali with the students of 1st, 3rd and 5th Semesters. The students were accompanied by the faculty members of Department of zoology, Dr. Subhalaxmi Bhattacharjee and Dr. Parichita Ray Choudhury. In total 69 students of Zoology Department visited the book fair. Among them 36 students were from 1st Semester, 30 students were from 3rd Semester and 3 students were from 6th Semester. During the visit, the students explored various book stalls exposing them to a wide range of books of their interests. This visit was a step towards enriching their intellectual growth as well their holistic development.

The report is prepared by Dr. Parichita Ray Choudhury, Asst. Professor, Department of Zoology, Holy Cross College, Agartala.
