

Literary Exhibition by the Department of English
BY – Barnita Majumdar, Asst. Prof, Dept. of English

The Department of English, Holy cross college, had organised a one day literary exhibition in the month of August 2019. The theme of the exhibition was – “ Facets of English Literature”. It was an academic exhibition, which was solely organised by the students of the 3rd and 5th semesters of the Department of English and co-ordinated by Ms. Barnita Majumdar and Dr. Shreya Ghosh.

There was a great zeal and excitement among the students of the department, who had not only taken initiative in organising the exhibition, but had also actively participated in the exhibition. The Principal of the College, Dr. Fr. Benny K. John, CSC inaugurated the exhibition and had encouraged the students to take part in these types of academic exhibition even in future. According to him, it is one of the modes of making learning experiences interesting and useful. Further, the Vice Principal of the College, Dr. Fr. Shaji M L , CSC, congratulated the students and the department for their efforts and wished many such enriching activities need to be organised by the department. The Head of the Department of English, Dr. Moumita Dey , delivered the vote of thanks and appreciated the support and co-operation with which the exhibition was successfully organised by the leading team.

The three members of the faculty of the department of English - Ms. Elemi Debbarma, Sr. Ramya and Mr. Anthony Ranglong - evaluated the respective topics and the performances of the students in groups as well as on individual basis in the exhibition. Their interaction with the students in person further enriched them with greater and novel ideas and filled them with inspiration for their growth. The students and the members of faculty from other departments of the college visited the exhibition and give their valuable feedbacks to the students and the groups, based on their presentations. Overall it was a learning and enjoyable experience for the students and they are highly encouraged to step ahead and organize such literary exhibitions on a bigger platform in future.

There were a total of 17 groups of students from the department, who had participated in making the literary exhibition successful and worth remembering. We are hopeful that in future the students of the department of English will feel optimistic and look forward to organise many more such activities on a much bigger scale, where they have sufficient number of days at their disposal to invite students of other institutions as well, to showcase their talents before others. These kinds of endeavours would then equip them with greater interaction abilities and promote their growth.
