REPORT ON THE 3rd STUDENT WORKSHOP

BY Newton Basumatry, 5th semester English

The two-day workshop which was organized by the department of English on 5th and 6th October 2018, had enlarged the students in knowing literature in a better manner, especially Poetry. The first day (5th oct.) of the Workshop began with a short inaugural session, invoking the presence of God through a prayer song by the brothers. The welcome address was proposed by Madam Moumita Dey, HOD, English. The topic of the workshop is "Wings of Poesy: Understanding its Shapes and Shades" and aims to understand poetry and its importance in life and literature and was introduced by Newton Basumatry to the listeners. Fr. Emmanuel Kallarackal, CSC, Principal, Fr. Shaji MS, CSC, Vice Principal and Dr Pankaj Chakraborty, Academic Dean congratulated the Department for organizing the workshop for the benefit of the student and encouraged to continue it in the near future.

In total 8 groups presented their papers on various topics like, Victorian poetry, Poetry of Eliot, Rhetoric, Metaphysical Poetry etc with great delight and enthusiasm. Each group comprise of 10 members monitored by a group leader. After every presentation, an interactive session was held and as we know, human quest for knowledge is always unsatisfying, therefore there were lots of chaos within the students in knowing and understanding literature especially poetry, which brought more interaction with the presenters and the audience. Some of the students also read their own poetry on stage during the two-day workshop.

The workshop ended with a short closing session where Brother Lakhambiang of 1st semester lead us to God through a song. The teachers expressed their heartfelt thanks to the 5th semester students for their hard work and active participation as a presenter and also the 1st and 3rd Semester students for their patience and cooperation. Arisha and her group brought glory in the workshop by being the best group in presentation. Richard Costa, Arisha Deb, Bikranta Debroy were felicitated as the best speakers and Subhajit Deb of 3rd of semester won the best poetry reader in the workshop.
