REPORT ON THE EDUCATIONAL TRIP TO NAGALAND

Organized by the Department of Sociology, Holy Cross College

Date: December 1 - 3, 2024

The Department of Sociology organized an educational trip to Nagaland from December 1 to 3, 2024, with the primary goal of participating in the renowned Hornbill Festival at Kisama Heritage Village, Nagaland. In total, our group consisted of 15 students and 4 faculty members. Our first destination was Mt. Pulie Badze in Jotsoma Village. Standing at an elevation of 2,300 meters and overlooking Kohima, the capital city of Nagaland, this peak forms the centerpiece of the Pulie Badze Wildlife Sanctuary. It is also associated with a notable folktale that adds historical and cultural significance. After which we visit our anticipated destination—Kisama Heritage Village—where the Hornbill Festival was in full swing. This village, which authentically replicates an ancient Naga settlement, offered us an opportunity to immerse ourselves in the rich cultural heritage of the Naga tribes. Known as the “Festival of Festivals,” the Hornbill Festival showcases traditional music, dance, and other cultural performances, providing a comprehensive introduction to Naga traditions. The 25th edition of the Hornbill Festival was a vibrant and memorable celebration for everyone involved.

On December 2, 2024, we traveled to Dimapur, the commercial hub of Nagaland, and explored several well-known markets, including Hongkong Market, New Market, and the Super Market. Finally, on December 3, 2024, we departed for Agartala, concluding our journey. This educational trip offered our students invaluable exposure to Naga history, culture, and heritage, effectively complementing their academic studies and deepening their understanding of this unique and diverse region.

Sub: Request for Permission for Educational Trip to Nagaland

Respected Fr. Principal,

I am writing to formally request your approval to organize an educational trip to Nagaland from December 1-3, 2024. The purpose of this trip is to participate in the renowned Hornbill Festival, held at Kisama Heritage Village in Nagaland. Kisama authentically represents an ancient Naga village, offering a glimpse into the rich cultural heritage of the Naga tribes. The Hornbill festival, often referred to as the 'Festival of Festivals' provides an immersive experience of Naga culture through traditional music, dance, and performances.

We believe this exposure will significantly enrich our students' understanding of local culture and complement their academic studies.

Once we receive your approval, we will proceed with the necessary arrangements and share a detailed itinerary.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,

Sentienla
